

Seeing Through a Microscope—Visual Orientation

What do you see when you look through a microscope? Cut out a small square of newspaper with a couple of lines of text clearly visible. Place it in the center of a clean microscope slide. With a dropper, place one drop of water on the paper. Place a clean coverslip on top of the water and the paper. Observe.

